Marion in Contest To Recruit WAVES

LT. H. E. MILLIKEN

Chief John J. Dugan, in charge of the Navy recruiting station here, announced plans for a WAVES enlistment contest in which the city of Marion, along with other northwestern Ohio communities, is entered.

The contest, Chief Dugan pointed out, is being sponsored by the Toledo naval recruiting station, which supervises sub-stations in this part of the state. Lt. H. E. Milliken, in charge of the Toledo station and a frequent visitor in Marion in this capacity, is directing the contest.

In announcing plans for the contest, Lt. Milliken advised sub-station officers that the contest covers the period from Sept. 1 to Navy Day, Oct. 27. At the conclusion of the contest an honor roll of "Women in the Navy" will be presented to the winning city or town. The winner, he said, will be that community from which the most young women file beneficial applications in the WAVES, based on percentage of population. Basing the contest results on population assures every community, large or small, of an equal chance, he pointed out.

OPA Grants Sugar To Help Feed Bees

To help the busy bees with their war work of making honey and, what is more important, supplying beeswax so vitally necessary now to our nation's fighting forces on all fronts, the Office of Price Administration today authorized the issuance of additional sugar allotments to beekeepers registered with OPA as industrial users, the district OPA office at Columbus has announced.

The additional sugar allotment, which is limited to a maximum of 15 pounds per bee colony per year, is necessary because of the short blossoming season, bad rainy conditions in the spring, resulting in loss of many plants and reduced clover pastures.

Application should be made in person or by mail, to the local Ration Board on Form R-315 and should show the amount requested, number of colonies of bees, that the original allowance has been used for feeding bees and that the additional sugar is needed to prevent the loss of bees.

FORECASTS JEWISH MOVE TO PALESTINE

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 10 — Thousands of Jews could migrate to the Jewish national homeland in Palestine, says a new survey, and millions more could go there after the war, with the sympathetic help of the United Nations, Sen. Robert F. Wagner of New York, asserted today.

"This help should be forthcoming more swiftly now that the Mediterranean is a United Nations lake," Wagner said in a message to the Zionist organization of America which opens its 16th annual biennial convention here today.

"I am confident that the brave pioneers who have transformed Palestine's wastelands into fruitful soil, and built up a new Jewish state, will continue to expand their splendid contribution to our common war effort and their long-range building of a Jewish commonwealth in Palestine," Wagner declared.

"With the sympathetic help of the United Nations, the numbers could be increased by the thousands now and by the millions at the end of hostilities."

Wagner, co-chairman with Sen. Charles McNary of Oregon of the American Palestine committee, a Christian organization of more than 1,000 members, told the Zionists "that the Jewish commonwealth in Palestine be the answer to the civilized world" to Hitler's atrocities in occupied Europe.

With hybrid corn, the important thing is NOT where the seed was grown, but how it performs where you plant it. The best way to compare varieties and decide which one suits you the best is to see them growing side by side in a soil and climate similar to yours. That's why DeKalb has more than 3300 proving grounds or demonstration fields, throughout the corn-growing areas.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Glad we ran into you, Judge. I was just tryin' to set Helen straight on this business about sugar. I wish you'd tell her what you told me last night down at lodge."

"Glad to, Jun. I told him, Helen, that there's not a single bit of truth to the rumor that the distillers use sugar in making whiskey. They make it exclusively from grain. Only bootleggers use sugar to make whiskey. I read an article in the paper just last week that goes to prove it. It told how a confessed bootlegger in a Federal court testified to the fact that another bootlegger, also on trial, had bought a million pounds of sugar a few years ago."

"As a matter of fact, Helen, no distiller is making whiskey today and hasn't for many months. All distillers are working night and day producing war alcohol for the government. And they make every drop of it exclusively from grain, too."

Old Timers And Universal Cooler To Clash Again
A second game between the Universal Cooler and Old Timers teams, city champions, and John Clark's Old Timers team was assured today when Charles Reid, captain of the Universal Cooler team, challenged the Old Timers to a return event. Earlier this week the Old Timers succeeded in accomplishing what other teams failed to do throughout the season—defeat Universal Cooler. The Old Timers defeated the Cooler aggregation by a score of 8-7.

Elmer Smith, coach of the Old Timers, today urged members of his victorious team to attend a practice at Lincoln park at 6 p. m. next Monday in preparation for the return contest which has tentatively been arranged for the following Monday. Members of the two teams first considered playing the second game next week, but the change was decided upon because of the conflict with a number of other events in Marion next week.

Old Timers have been asked to contact either John Clark, Shorty Richards or Coach Smith so that the date for the second game can be definitely established.

CO. H MEN TO ATTEND OFFICERS' SCHOOL
Three Representatives Register for Lancaster Classes.

A regimental school for all officers of the second regiment, which was ordered by Col. Earl Brunson last month, will open in the Lancaster Army for a two-day session at 1:30 p. m. Saturday. Capt. Carl Ebert of Co. H announced today. Capt. Ebert, Lt. E. E. Smith and Lt. Dale Price will represent Co. H.

The purpose of the school, the first of its kind conducted by the Ohio State Guard, is to present a clear method of uniform instruction so that all groups will recognize the necessity of proper preparation and presentation of instructions to their units during the coming months.

Most of the officers will be quartered at the Lancaster hotel until after the close of the school late Sunday afternoon. Lt. Col. William Drake, regimental executive officer, will welcome the officers followed by a roll call by Capt. Russell Rine. The following subjects will be discussed: Regimental plans and officers' training, basic officer training, first aid, sanitation, elementary map and photograph reading, preliminary shotgun marksmanship, military law, sub machine gun, modified bayonet training, military courtesy and discipline, expedition and demonstration of special operations, interior guard duty under patrol system, hand grenade, combat tactics, specialists' training, chemical agent defense and company administration and mess management.

Capt. Ebert has been chosen to give the instructions on interior guard duty and the chemical agent will be conducted by Capt. E. B. Rosser, who conducted a similar series of instructions for the Marion Civilian Defense units last fall.

It was also announced that due to the officers' school the opening dance Saturday will be under the management of the non-commissioned officers and enlisted personnel of the company. Sgt. Tim Pahey will act as master of ceremonies in place of Lt. Smith.

The second regiment is composed of units in the following cities: Columbus, Chillicothe, Athens, Lancaster, Gallipolis, London, Delaware, Marysville, Marion, Zanesville, Coshocton, Marietta and Westerville.

GRADUATION'S A HABIT
By The Associated Press

SPARTANBURG, S. C.—Graduating from college once in a lifetime is sufficient for most people, but Aviation Cadet Roper O. Purdy, 3rd, of Monroe, N. C., did it twice in one year—and from the same college.

Purdy was called into the Army Air Corps after three and one-half years at Wofford college. When a civilian graduating class was given diplomas, Purdy got one on the strength of his previous scholastic record.

A few months later he completed a five-month pre-flight course at Wofford and received a second diploma under auspices of the Army Air Corps.

THE COAT WITH THE DOUBLE-BREASTED FABRIC

"Double-breasted" means that every square inch of Alpagora fabric contains twice as many wool fibers as the average coat.

This means greater richness, longer wear. It's worth a fair price to have protection as well as a perfect coat.

We had the Alpagora fabric made in France for you too.

Have they any just coming with us? Don't miss them.

Liberators Blast Destroy Two Big Jap Ships in Burma Raid

BY THOBURN WJANT
AP War Correspondent

WITH AMERICAN LIBERATORS BOMBERS OVER RANGOON, Sept. 8 (Delayed)—In the most successful raid ever made in Rangoon, a swarm of American Liberators today destroyed two large freighters totaling eight to 10,000 tons, damaged a cargo vessel, sank several smaller craft and started many fires in the dock area.

Then the big four-engined bombers beat off 15 to 20 Japanese Zeros in a savage aerial battle that lasted almost 50 minutes.

It was by far the greatest exhibition of bombing that I have seen in 18 combat missions. The Liberators gunned them down at least five enemy fighters, probably destroyed nine and damaged one.

All our planes returned safely although some, including the one in which I flew, bore jagged holes evidencing the accuracy and intensity of the Japanese anti-aircraft fire.

All told, four big waves of Liberators dropped more than 100,000 pounds of bombs on Japanese installations in Rangoon.

In a plane piloted by Lt. James Barton, 22, of Birmingham, N. Y., whose wife is a student at Kent State university in Ohio, I saw explosives crash into and around a 400-foot freighter anchored in the Rangoon River.

Other planes in our wave led by Lt. Gordon Wilson, 26, of Covington, Ky., scored at least four hits on a vessel in addition to sinking another craft. Another freighter cargo vessel was hit by other waves.

Zeros jumped us right after we had made the bombing run. The next 50 minutes seemed like 50 years.

It was the first time in nine months of combat flying that I'd seen an enemy aircraft, and I hope I never see them again.

Joyous Italians Celebrate Peace with Lone Briton

By DANIEL DE LUCE
AP War Correspondent
Representing the Combined
American Press

PALMI, Italy, Sept. 8 — (Delayed)—In Palmi, the microcosm of all Italy, joyous citizens heard the news of the armistice tonight and took a lone British Tommy to their hearts.

Lance Cpl. John Bennington of Liverpool was literally swamped by Italians hailing him as a representative of the allied powers with which they were at last at peace.

The armistice report first heard here was from a London NBC broadcast. It spread like wildfire through the little town which after month-long airdrops and a final naval shelling was occupied by the Eighth army last Monday. People streamed down the hillside streets to the church of Santa Maria overlooking the beach and bronze bells rang exuberantly in the tower.

Townfolk surrounded Bennington—the only Briton in sight—and escorted him into the church. Of Catholic faith, he was embraced by Carmine Father Leopardi.

Special prayers were said as the sunset glow from the sea came through the broken windows and illuminated the altar and the image of the Holy Virgin.

An Italian woman who said her son was killed in the war wept and clasped the young British soldier's hand.

"I didn't know what to say," Bennington remarked later. "I was just as glad as the Italians that we don't have to fight them any more."

WILL THE FALL OF ITALY MEAN A HOME FRONT DEFEAT?

THE fall of Italy is glorious news --- if we take it as the end of round one instead of the finish of the fight.

It COULD mean a home front defeat --- if Americans start pulling their punches.

It COULD mean good news to our two major enemies --- if anybody takes it as a signal to slow up, let down, or quit backing the war with everything they've got.

As a matter of fact, the long, hard march to Berlin and Tokyo has just begun. If you think it will be easy, if you think we can win this fight with one hand --- then you are wrong, dangerously wrong.

Before the last shot is fired, a lot of lives are going to be lost and a lot of billions spent. The more American dollars that go into superior equipment, the less American blood is going to redden foreign soil.

It cost 46 million dollars to lay Hamburg low! It cost another 300 million to train, equip and transport the crews and ready everything for the task. And Harburg is just one enemy city.

War Bonds must provide much of the money for the bitter struggle yet ahead. You --- not the fellow next door --- have a personal responsibility to dig deeper than is pleasant and convenient to make the Third War Loan a success.

It WILL be a success only if EVERY American opens his heart and his pocket and decides to BACK THE ATTACK:

The United States Treasury Department

TRY TO KEEP Ticket Sale for 3rd War Loan LID ON BALKANS

Premature Explosion Likely To Hamper Allied Drive
on Germany.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The drive to prevent a premature explosion in Europe's leadership, which would hamper the Balkan states' efforts to keep the lid on the present problems of the continent, is being strengthened by the fact that the German satellite nations, Hungary and Bulgaria, are expected to be in the line of attack in the Balkans.

The fact was, as expected, when they succeeded, and already there have been reports of the German satellite nations. These are now being in the Balkans, and the German satellite nations, Hungary and Bulgaria, are expected to be in the line of attack in the Balkans.

The aim of allied strategy for the Balkans now must be to try to keep the forces of revolution and guerrilla warfare from spending their power before the armies of Britain and the United States are prepared to give them full assistance.

Because of the problem of getting troops into the Balkans an offer of surrender at present or in the immediate future might be somewhat embarrassing to the allied commanders in the Mediterranean theater. For if troops could not be dispatched in force, Germany might take advantage of any such situation to take over the surrendering country.

NEW MINERS' WAGE PROPOSAL STUDIED

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Wage negotiations in the soft coal industry are considering a new proposal to raise wages from $1.25 a day to $1.50 a day, with time and a half after eight hours a day, or after 40 hours a week.

The proposal, as first advanced by President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers provided for an 8 1/2 hour day, including all travel time, with time and a half after eight hours a day, or after 40 hours a week.

Operators calculated that would raise wages an average of $1.99 a day for a five-day week and $2.20 a day for a six-day week. They were reported authoritatively to have turned it down as too costly.

The miners now work a seven-hour day, all productive time. They get time and a half after 35 hours a week. They contend that is comparable to 42 1/2 to 45 hours in other jobs, fighting underground travel at 1 1/2 to two hours a day.

Partial-to-total proposals heretofore under consideration would not change the method of measuring the working day, which has always been computed from the time the miner reaches the place where he starts working until he leaves it and heads for the mouth of the mine.

The UMW - Illinois contract, which the war labor board (WLB) refused to approve, would retain that method but allow $1.25 a day for travel time.

Former Ohio Reporter

Lieutenant Fawcett was credited with shooting down one and "probably another" enemy plane while taking part in 25 successful bombing missions. He held the air medal and oak leaf clusters.

Union Co. Reports
GOOD CORN CROP

Special to The Star
MARYSVILLE, Sept. 10.—Despite the fact that Union county's corn got a poor start due to late planting, the crop may equal or even surpass yields of last year's record crop, it was announced by W. J. Hemmer, county agriculture extension agent. The crop must escape frost for most of the remainder of September to be generally of good quality.

Corn cutting is in progress in the county although many fields are not ready for the shock. Due to the labor shortage, the percent of corn that is cut will be smaller than in many years with much left on the stalk for pickers. Many farmers are hoping to harvest soybeans in time to sow wheat on the ground to make up for loss of ground for wheat by not cutting corn.

Many farmers estimate that their crops will produce 100 or more bushels to the acre.

Jones Hopes To Win Support of New Farm Price Program

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—War Food Administrator Marvin Jones hopes to win congressional favor with a 1944 food program built around government guarantee of farm prices at levels high enough to cover "added risks and hazards" that go with increased production.

Uncontrolled, all-out production, coupled with rigid control over distribution of essential commodities, highlights the plans thus far outlined, for which guarded expressions of approval have come from Capitol Hill and farm organization quarters.

Whether there will be a renewal of the administration-farm bloc clash over subsidies to hold down farm prices at the consumer level depends on what new proposals may come from Jones or government price-fixers when Congress reconvenes Sept. 14.

Jones' anticipated appeal for another renewal of the life of the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC), whose funds and authority expire Dec. 31, will put the point at issue quickly.

He is expected to ask authority for the CCC to expend $1,000,000,000 during the first six months of 1944, if that much is needed to meet emergencies.

Objection to Subsidies

"Our principal objection to the use of all-out subsidies is that they throw the whole price structure out of line. If pursued throughout the war, budget-balancing time will find them quickly discarded. Then the cost of food will have to go up sharply to prevent the farmer's ruin."

Goss says he believes no serious objection will be offered to use of subsidies to meet emergencies such as drought and floods, in cases where the government might step in to absorb part of the cost of obtaining feed, seed or other materials necessary for rehabilitation.

Meanwhile, Jones doesn't say anything about subsidies. Around the war food administration (WFA) offices the word is virtually taboo.

The WFA chief has said, however, that the best way to get production is to have "a definite support price that will last throughout the season," and that the government should "stand ready to buy any surplus of a commodity" that might not move on the market at that price, adding that "in some cases it might be necessary for the government to absorb a loss."

SHORTAGE OF PORK PREDICTED IN 1945

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—People who go in for long-range worrying can start brooding now about the probability of fewer pork chops in 1945.

Because of low feed supplies, the war food administration (WFA) has moved to reduce next spring's pig crop by 17 per cent.

The WFA said prospective feed supplies will be inadequate to maintain hog production at present record levels. Already farmers, particularly those in the deficit feed producing areas of the east, south and west, are running short of corn and other feed for their dairy cattle and poultry flocks.

A reduction in hog production next year would tend to make more grain available for the production of milk and eggs.

The WFA said that a 1944 spring pig crop of about 61,000,000 head appears to be justified. This year's spring crop totaled 74,000,000 head, the largest on record.

The reduction is expected as a result of WFA's action in lowering the government support price of hogs from $13.75 to $12.50 a hundred pounds, Chicago basis, effective Oct. 1, 1944. That's the time of year when the 1944 spring pig crop will start to market in volume.

The change was announced at this time so that farmers might have ample time to make plans for spring farrowings.

The WFA said a smaller pig crop next year would not show up in smaller supplies of pork before 1945. Because the bulk of this year's hogs will not go to market until next winter, the 1944 production of pork is expected by the WFA to reach a record volume of 13,500,000,000 pounds.

The $12.50 support price will apply only to lighter hogs weighing between 190 and 230 pounds. The present $13.75 support level, which will expire when next year's spring pigs start moving to market, is applicable to hogs weighing between 200 and 270 pounds. Thus heavier hogs would be dropped from next year's program.

Harding-Mansfield Grid Date Changed

Contest Moved Back To Sept. 18 To Avoid Conflict with Circus.

The 1943 Harding-Mansfield football game, scheduled for Sept. 18 at Harding stadium, E. H. Hoffman, principal of the school, announced today.

Announcement of the postponement was made after Mansfield High school officials gave their consent to a postponement.

Mr. Hoffman contacted Mansfield officials and suggested in view of the excellent performance of the Harding-Mansfield game in 1942, that the game be played on Friday, Sept. 17, original date of the game.

Local football officials realized that attendance at the game if it were played Friday night, would be less than the attendance at the game if it were played on Saturday, Sept. 18.

Harding-Mansfield football game, which will mark the renewal of friendly relations between the two schools, is 8 p. m.

Following is the remainder of the 1943 Harding schedule, subject, of course, to last-minute change:

Sept. 21—Columbus West at Marion.
Oct. 1—Gallatin away.
Oct. 8—M. Vernon at Marion.
Oct. 15—Lima South at Marion.
Oct. 22—Findlay away.
Oct. 29—Ashland away.
Nov. 5—Bucyrus at Marion.
Nov. 12—Shelby away.

Harding's 38 grid squad members were given thorough eye, nose and throat examinations at the office of Dr. E. F. Brady last night in preparation for practices of definitely rougher nature, culminating in the Mansfield contest. At the beginning of fall practices last week the Prexies were given heart exams. Probably some time before the Tiger encounter they will be given a last-minute physical check-up.

Today the Hardingites, especially members of the first two teams, were given their first dose of hard, rigorous football in a practice game played under conditions of an actual grid tilt. As Joe Peirce, line coach, put it, "We wanted to see what the boys could do when they are under pressure."

More plays have been added to the Prexy bag of tricks. Continually the coaches have been

Al Smith Matches 1940 Record with 15 Games in Bag

By The Associated Press
DETROIT, Sept. 10.—(Cleveland Indians and veteran Al Smith matched their 1940 records yesterday as the Tribe won and lost games to hold precariously to second place and the mound ace powered his way to his 15th victory.

Three years ago Smith came to Cleveland from Boston and led the Indians to a double and a triple in the second inning, as every Clevelander except Russ Polonski contributed to the attack. The Tigers bunched four hits for four runs in the first inning of the afternoon, after the Indians had talked once, and snapped back with two more in the second, sending Reynolds to the showers. Jack Salvoon took over the pitching, and the Tigers got another in the third and three more in the sixth. Polo Center pitched a hitless ball for the last two innings.

The two teams resume battle today with another double header in Briggs stadium. Jim Bagby and Mel Harder are the pitching nominees.

Season-End Fight Tough Schedule Ahead As Grid Team At Richwood Shapes Up

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National League home stretch looks strange this year without a race with the St. Louis Cardinals in front by 15 games and soon to clinch their second successive pennant—but the Brooklyn Dodgers are showing no sign of having been a different story if they had not faltered in summer.

The Dodgers' rebellion in July and the conditions that led up to it, may not have cost Brooklyn a pennant. It is doubtful whether they could have beaten the Cardinals anyway. But apparently it did rob the senior circuit of its customary close competition through the closing weeks.

After Branch Rucker ripped the club apart it lost 10 straight games and 10 out of 24. But since the Dodgers found themselves again with new blood in mid-August they have been showing up the rest of the league.

Recently they went snapping on a 19-game winning streak and they have won 16 out of their last 19 games. Yesterday with former President Hoover looking from a box seat they beat the Phillies 7-6 and moved within half a game of second place. This seems to put them among the top comebacks of the year in sports.

The frolic with the Phillies who were making their first visit to Ebbets field under the leadership of Fred Fitzsimmons, sometime idol of Flatbush, turned out to be quite a scramble.

Rookie Rex Barney, standing on the mound for the Dodgers, had no control and gave up three runs in the first inning. Two homers by Augie Galan and Billy Herman got these runs back for him and Brooklyn went ahead with another tally in the second. Then the Phillies routed Barney with two runs in the fourth and the Dodgers won the game with three in the seventh, although they had to stand off another Phillies thrust in the ninth.

The day's only other action was in the American league, where the New York Yankees stormed to an 11-3 triumph over the Boston Red Sox, and Cleveland divided a doubleheader with Detroit.

The Yankees made 15 hits and put together three-run clusters in the second and fifth frames and a five-run flurry in the sixth. Every Yankee except Nick Etten made at least one hit. Bill Dickey made four in succession to drive three runs and Joe Gordon batted in three on a double with the bases loaded.

The Indians made 18 hits in taming the Tigers 8-3 in their first game as Lefty Al Smith pitched seven-hit ball for his 15th victory, but Hal White came back with a seven-hit hurling job in the second game as Detroit won 10 to 3.

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

WITH HANDS that were dis-tantly trembling, Mary put down the note I had given her from Marion, and catching up the little black code book she had used when they were children, she began to rattle off
pages.

"You're on the track of something," I asked hopefully.

Her eyes were fixed with excitement on the note.

"That first stuff doesn't mean anything," she said, "but the misspelled words mean just the opposite of what she says. The people are not nice or kind, and she doesn't feel safe. But I think that's just camouflage, so that if the note were picked up by one of her captors they wouldn't suspect she was trying to tip off anybody to anything, but would figure out that she was a bit homesick."

Significant Expressions

"But that other stuff at the last is something else again. Let me see—silver cross, gold bracelet, opal ring, amber necklace, my grandmother gave me. All these have a meaning, I'm sure, when I find them. Ah, here they are!

Auntie Midge, do you mind if I puzzle over these a bit? You see each one of these words is carried through three other key words to the real meaning. For instance, silver cross means the indexed at cotton pot, cotton pot as bloom,
and bloom as tea tray, which would index the real meaning.
These aren't the true keys—I have to look them up—but they'll serve to show you what the setup is. Marion was quite ingenious, and it will take me a little time."

"I imagine you may have all the time you need," I said. "Isn't there anything I can do for you?"

"Yes. You can tell me what happened down at the hotel. I know Olga got back safely, of course, but I haven't had any details, and I'll be able to work at this much faster, if my curiosity is appeased. So be a good aunt and give me two minutes. Grandpa Spencer is telling Ronald and Noel in there. I know, and of course Uncle Dicky knows everything."

Must Be Brief

"Very well," I assented, "but it will have to be brief. Father is counting upon your paper on this."

"He's going to have it," Mary said. "And I only need a few minutes. So please hurry!"

It was closer to three minutes
than two when I finished my tale of Olga's delivery of Georges'
money to Ruth Hayes, of my adventure as a disguised chamber-maid, and of the fact that Ruth even now was in residence at our hotel. But I said nothing of my discovery of the chloroform in Ruth Hayes' bag. That I knew, my father did not wish mentioned
as yet to anyone.

"Whew!" Mary gave a low whistle when I had finished. "The lady gets around, doesn't she?
But you think this afternoon will wind her up?"

"I truly hope so," I answered fervently. "Mary was already deep in the little black code book,
and picking up a paper, I tried to interest myself in it until she should be ready to talk to me."

Decodes the Note

At last, after several minutes of checking and as many more of writing, she lifted her head and looked at me, her eyes aglow
with excitement and triumph.

"What a memory that girl has!"
she exclaimed. She made a code sentence out of every ornament
she had—you know she had a number of things left her by her grandmother which she couldn't wear as a child, or even as a young girl. But every one of them meant something special in the old days when she invented her pirate gang. And she has remembered all those meanings and given them to us as clues."

She spread out the sheets of paper between us.

"Of course some of them are far-fetched," she said, "but I think we can read between the lines."

She picked up the first sheet,
and read slowly what she had just written.

Diphtheria

There are few principles in medical science as well and firmly established as that diphtheria
can be prevented by inoculation.
The inoculation should be made first when the child is nine months old, and repeated by a subsequent dose at five or six years.

I presume more human beings
are protected against diphtheria
in the United States today than against smallpox.

The result has been to wipe diphtheria practically off the continent of North America. In fact, this result has been so completely accomplished that it constitutes a break in the continued use of the preventive measures. A whole generation has grown up who do not realize what the horrors of diphtheria are. Our young parents today are of that generation.
They are likely to say that all this talk about the danger of diphtheria is scare talk, that they never saw or heard of a case of diphtheria, so why should they submit their nine-months-old baby to this procedure?

Such a viewpoint is, as I say,
perfectly natural under the circumstances. It takes imagination to remember that diphtheria used to visit a neighborhood and within a week five or six funerals
with the little caskets of children three to ten years old would make its visitation forever memorable. When infectious diseases hide
when they are no longer epidemic,
I don't know and nobody does.
But we know they do and if it were not for our vigilance against typhoid fever, smallpox and diphtheria, they would again creep out of their hiding places and begin again their devastation.
History can be summoned
to prove that over and over again.
Eternal vigilance is the price of peace, and you must have your nine-months-old baby inoculated against diphtheria. It will do him
no harm, not even cause a flutter.
The Boards of Health have been through other key words means:

The pirates are getting frightened and uneasy. Fear government vessels is on their track.
Think they are ready to have me
walk the plank if vessel heaves
in sight, so there will be no evidence against them."

She stopped abruptly with a choke in her voice and the horror
in her eyes was reflected, I know,
in mine.

"Poor, brave kid!" she said,
and there was tenderness in her voice.

"They evidently realize the net
is closing in," I said.

"But Auntie Midge," she cried,
they mustn't move so fast against these devils! Grandpa Spencer must wait until Marion is safe
before he makes his final move."

"Yes, but just listen to this one which stems from the 'gold bracelet.'"

The Stars Say—

By GENEVIEVE KENNEL

For Saturday, Sept. 11

A SCHEMER or shrewd and understanding of unusual and unexpected events mark this day, which may be memorable for its far-reaching effect on the future life and its destinies. Under the spur of such excitement much may be accomplished if a firm grip on the acts, words and emotion be rigidly held, without impetuosity, or with wild impulses. Make changes with care, travel, make new contacts
or agreements although in business
and not in the romantic affections,
which have sensational auras.
Shun all sorts of extravagances and excesses.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a sudden and radical change in the tide of events, which may have an important and memorable reaction on the future life. All things new or novel should be touched with new courage and changes, travel and fresh fields of activity in both business and private interest. However, there is more progress and satisfaction in well and cautiously managed business affairs.

A child born on this day will have original and versatile talents,
with brilliant ideas and propensities of scientific value, but a tendency to extravagance and self-indulgence may contribute to its unhappiness.
